Charter Members Sought Bids Taken, July 4 'Splash' Eyed At Meadows Recreation Center

A "total recreation center" at Pembroke Meadows is no longer just a dream.

The Pembroke Meadows Civic League now is making plans for a "splash party" July 4 in the first phase of the reality - an "L" shaped 80-by-40-foot swimming pool.

Bids on construction of the pool and adjoining bath houses were to have been opened April 2. And, hopefully, actual work on the initial project would be started within a few days.

The master plan for the Meadows Recreation Center was given enthusiastic approval at the civic league's March meeting and a stock-membership drive was launched immediately.

C.C. Taylor, civic league president, now reports that about 180 Pembroke Meadows homeowners have been contacted as prospective Rec Center stockholders and more than 80 per cent of them have indicated they will participate.

The thinking now is that the charter stock-memberships will be limited to 200 families. However, Taylor emphasized that the cutoff date and number of charter stockholders to be accepted will be determined at the civic league's April 8 meeting.

During the current drive, a family may become a part owner of the total recreation facility for $200 - and the civic league has made arrangements for financing through local banks.

Shares will be higher, probably by $50, after the initial drive ends.

The Rec Center program will be set up for membership stock to be transferred (sold) if a family should move from Pembroke Meadows. And, besides providing a family with privileges of all facilities in the center, there's

Pert Blonde In PR Role For Terry

Lucia W. Harrison, an ever-smiling blonde whose interests range from art to sailing, has accepted the position of public relations director for Terry Corporation of Virginia.

Among Mrs. Harrison's duties will be that of editor of TERRY TOPICS, beginning in May.

She may be contacted in person at 4509 White Chapel Drive, (Pembroke Meadows), or by calling 499-2328.

Mrs. Harrison, 23, is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. W. A. Wheary Jr. She has lived in this area since 1953, when her father, an executive of Sears, Roebuck & Co., was transferred to Norfolk.

After graduation from Maury High School, Mrs. Harrison earned an Associate of Arts degree in commercial art from Averett College in Danville. She also has attended Norfolk Business College and completed an interior design course under Neil Thomas at Old Dominion College.

Mrs. Harrison joined the Terry Corp. staff in late February. She previously was a secretary and color specialist with the architectural-planning firm of Dudley, Morrisette, Cederquist and Associates. She also has worked as a

$150 Cash Prizes Await 'Green Thumb' Champs

Plans are all set - complete with $150 in prize money - for the first annual Pembroke Meadows 'Green Thumb' Contest.

There's no such thing as a formal entry. Homeowners in Pembroke Meadows are in competition automatically. But those who want to show their pride in their new homes, contribute to the overall beauty of the community and have a chance at the $75 first prize will want to "get with it" now.

The judging will be on July 12.

Besides the $75 cash first prize, the second place winner will receive $50 and third place will be worth $25.

The contest will be based on the general beauty of front lawns only. Things like originality, grouping of shrubbery and flowers, and the way they blend with the style and color of the house will be noticed by the judges.

The contest is sponsored by the secretary at Norfolk General Hospital, at the Norfolk Museum of Arts and Sciences and was a sailing instructor at the Norfolk Yacht Club.

Next to her new job, Mrs. Harrison says her enthusiasm centers most on sailing.

She was the first girl to win the Hampton One Design class in the Maury Regatta in 1964, and crews regularly during Chesapeake Bay regattas.

Not far behind in her spare-time interests are "all kinds of art," folk music dancing and "anything connected with the outdoors."

Rec Center Plan Given Big Boost

little doubt the membership stock will increase in value.

Pembroke Meadows homeowners who haven't already made arrangements for charter membership stock in the center may do so by contacting Howard Harris, chairman of the civic league's Ways and Means Committee. Harris lives at 4420 Hudgins Drive and his telephone is 497-9406.

The Rec Center master plan got a big boost when Frederick Napolitano made the eye-popping announcement that Terry Corp. is giving $1,000 toward the project.

Terry Corp. also is giving the civic league the deed to the three-acre waterfront tract at the end of Pembroke Boulevard for the center.

A steering committee, headed by Fred W. Pearson, now is at work on by-laws and other details necessary in setting up the Rec Center machinery. The facility will remain as civic league property but will be governed by a separate board of directors, Taylor said.

Besides the swimming pool, when completed the Rec Center will include tennis courts, boat slips and a clubhouse arranged for all age groups.

Construction of the clubhouse is on the agenda following the pool, and then will come the tennis courts and boat ramp. Civic league officials are hopeful that the entire plan will be completed in two years, but they realistically expect it to require three years.

Terry Corp., with the whole-hearted endorsement of the Pembroke Meadows Civic League.

Beginning in 1970, the grand winner is to be recognized by having his name engraved on a handsome trophy to be passed along to winners in future years.

Harrison's Nursery, at 5366 Virginia Beach Blvd., is helping to promote the contest by offering a 10 per cent discount on all shrubs and plants purchased by "Terry Club" cardholders in Pembroke Meadows. Anyone living in a Terry-built home may get one of the cards simply by asking at the office at 4509 White Chapel Drive.

The judging panel will include Virginia Beach's Vice Mayor Robert B. Cromwell Jr.; Elgia L. Easter, horticulturist of the Virginia Tech Extension Service; Mrs. Charles Meads of the Pembroke Manor Garden Club, and Miss Barbara Harrison of Harrison's Nursery.

General rules of the Pembroke Green Thumb Contest are:

*Judging will be restricted to front yards only.

*The judges will consider the general appearance and condition of lawns, colors of shrubbery and flowers to coordinate with the house, originality, and the excellence of design in grouping of shrubs and flowers.

*The first place winner of the 1969 Pembroke Meadow Green Thumb Contest will be awarded $75 in cash. The second place award will be $50, and the third place winner will receive $25.

*The first place winner in 1969 will not be eligible to win the grand prize again until 1972. The second and third place winners will be eligible to compete again next year.

Terry Homeowners Offered Pembroke Shores Preview

Pembroke Shores, a new neighborhood of 118 fully developed homesites off the Lynnhaven River, will be offered to the public this summer - but families now living in Terry-built homes are being given advance opportunities in the highly-desirable neighborhood.

Thirty-three of the Pembroke Shore lots are a minimum of one-half acre, wooded and on the water. The 30-foot channel, which will provide access to the Chesapeake Bay, will be at least four feet deep at low tide.

The remaining homesites range in size from 12,000 to 16,000 square feet.

Pembroke Shores is immediately north of Pembroke Meadows, within easy walking distance of a new elementary school and only one mile from Virginia Beach's major shopping center.

When the section is opened, each lot will be fully improved, including city water and sewer lines. Grading, dredging and other work already is well under way.

The general location, size of the lots and other aesthetic features make Pembroke Shores ideally suited for houses in the $30,000 and up class. For this reason, Terry officials feel that the community will be served best by custom builders.

Pembroke Realty and Insurance Agency, Inc., is exclusive agent for the Pembroke Shores homesites.

Present Terry homeowners interested in looking over the subdivision plat and other details before the lots go on the open market may do so by calling Pembroke Realty's representatives at 499-0535.

Activities at PA High

Students Plan 'Citizenship Week'

A highlight of activities at Princess Anne High School during April will be observance of "Citizenship Week," sponsored by the Student Cooperative Association.

The observance will be April 14-18.

Linda Wilkins, president, and other SCA officers will present a special assembly program to encourage the students to take pride in their school and to show their citizenship. Clubs also will participate in the program by clean-up projects around the school and the surrounding communities.

The climax of the week will be SCA awards to the student displaying his/her good character.

On April 25 and 26, the students and faculty of Princess Anne will present their annual talent show in the school auditorium.

The public is invited to the talent show. Admission will be 75 cents for students and $1 for adults.

SCA President Linda Wilkins, Don Parsons, Maria Clark and Michelle Clifton have been selected to go to Richmond for the State SCA Convention, April 11, 12 and 13.

A good amount of very usable clothing has been collected by Princess Anne students for the "Save the Children Federation," a non-profit, non-sectarian organization to help needy families in the U.S. and foreign countries.

Jackie Coleman headed the SCA-backed effort, and most of the clothing collected will be sent to the Southern Appalachian Mountains region. The drive officially closed April 2, but anybody who still would like to donate clean, wearable clothing may call 497-2785.

"Heartiest congratulations" Teri Meredith, Deidra Patton, Ken Osborne and Robert C. Smith.

These four Princess Anne seniors have been selected as finalists in the National Merit Scholarship program!

Pies, Songs Mixed for Church Fun

The second annual pie social sponsored by women of Pembroke Manor United Church of Christ was held in March, and saying "a good time was had by all" would rank with the choice understatement.

The fun-filled fund-raising event was staged for the church's various projects.

Mrs. Jean Fox supplied background organ music throughout the evening and Miss Inga Jo Taylor was guest soloist, with selections from "The Sound of Music" and "The Man from LaMancha."

Another feature was the sing-along, led by Miss Colleen Kelly. And then there was plenty of delicious pie, Christian fellowship and laughter to leave those attending looking forward to the 1970 event.

A special invitation is issued for women interested in giving a helping hand with charitable projects to attend a meeting at the United Church of Christ at 8 p.m., April 7. The Church is at 601 Constitution Blvd.

Troop 476 Busy

Boy Scout Troop 476, sponsored by the Pembroke Manor Civic League, has started its second year with 32 members and four patrols.

George Huddleston is scoutmaster and Robert Steele is membership committee chairman of the troop known as "the Spirit of '62."

During its first year Troop 476 kept busy with a wide variety of functions - and is looking forward to a very busy summer, including activities at Camp Pipsico.
